

Privacy & Security Policy

Application Account

When you create a new user account at www.pensionqualitymark.org.uk, we collect your name, email address and company contact details.

Sharing your information with other companies

We have a firm commitment to protecting your privacy and security. We are obliged by the Distance Selling Directive, and the Data Protection legislation, and all current Trade and Legal precedents and policies to respect your wishes. You can at any time contact us and we will OPT you out of any aspect of our marketing programme. But we feel that you like us will want to announce your success!

Application History

A record is kept of all your application(s). You have the right through standing Data Protection legislation to request, for a small fee, any data we hold on you. Please contact us if you wish to enquire about the data we hold.

Will my contact information be disclosed to third parties?

We do not disclose your personal details to any third party.

What are cookies and how do we use them?

A cookie is a small file that can be stored on your computer's hard drive. PQM uses cookies to provide features like auto-login and to determine when applicants have previously visited our site. Our cookies do not contain any personal information about you, so only PQM will be able to use the cookies to determine your identity.

What is an IP address and how does PQM use them?

An IP address is a number that is assigned to your computer when connected to the Internet. The servers that serve our web site automatically identify your computer by its IP address. This is used exclusively to highlight applications that appear abnormal in order to identify the source of fraudulent submissions.

Does PQM ensure the privacy practices of other sites to which it provides links?

While we carefully select the web sites to which we link, we are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of these web sites.

How will I know when PQM changes its privacy policy?

Our privacy policy is regularly reviewed to make sure we continue to serve the privacy interests of our customers. We reserve the right to change and update the privacy policy and these changes will be posted on our web site. We encourage you to visit this page from time to time to ensure you are aware of our any changes we may have made.
